Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

YORK MEN BUY GAS PLANT

PART OF A BIG DEAL WHICH CONCERNS TOWN AND COUNTY.

Purchasers Are Interested in the Hanover and Littlestown Trolley—What Next?

A number of York men have had options for several months to buy the entire capital stock of the Gettysburg Gas Company. The options were renewed from time to time and last Wednesday the options were taken up and the sale of the stock completed.

Chas. S. Duncan, Esq., Hon. D. P. McPherson, S. A. Hammond and W. W. Hafer practically owned all the stock of the Gas Company. They sold their holdings to Capt. W. H. Lanius, Geo. S. Billmeier, John W. Staley, Geo. Smyser, of York, and T. J. O'Neal of Hanover.

The Gas Company was chartered in 1867 and soon proved to be a paying business, its stock earning good dividends. The stock of the company for years amounted to $15,000, being divided into 300 shares with a par value $50. About ten years ago a number of York men, following the lead of Geo. Schmidt, Esq., of that city, bought up the stock, paying to our home people an average price of about $70 a share. After holding the stock several years, Chas. S. Duncan, Esq., bought it from the York holders at $78 a share. There were a few scattering holdings of the stock and these Mr. Duncan afterwards acquired, some at $78 and others at prices up to $100, the highest price paid.

The company while held locally in the first instance had created a surplus fund which was spent in new mains and improvements before the first sale of the stock. While plant was held by the York men few improvements were made. In the last few years Mr. Duncan has largely rebuilt the plant and quite recently added new main on Carlisle street.

After the Company was acquired by Mr. Duncan and those associated with him, the capital stock was increased $15,000 and divided among the holders. This doubling of the stock necessarily would cut the price of the stock in half, for 600 shares at $39 would equal 300 shares at $78. In addition a mortgage debt of $15,000 was placed on the plant, but only a part of latter was issued and expended in the recent improvements, in addition to what was contributed by the receipts of the company. The consumption of gas has increased wonderfully in this place. Pius A. Miller, collector for the company for several years after Mr. Duncan bought up the stock, recently said that the collections had doubled since he began to collect.

The sale to the York men, according to our information means a good sized profit to the local holders. The selling price is quoted at $60 a share and if this is correct necessarily the holders made from $10,000 to $12,000 over and above what was paid by them for the stock.

It looks as though the purchase of the Gettysburg Gas Company is only a part of a big deal. According to rumors from York, the purchasers of the Gas Co. stock, Capt. Wm. H. Lanius, Geo. S. Billmeier, John W. Staley, Geo. Smyser and others, own a majority of the stock in the York County Traction Company and have contracted to sell their holdings in said company to New York and Scranton parties. The same rumors say latter parties are those interested in the York Haven power plant.

As previously told in this paper Capt. Lanius and his associates are deeply interested in the building of the Hanover and Littlestown trolley, which it is proposed to extend to Gettysburg at one end and at the other will be connected with the York Co. Traction Company. It is hinted that the same parties are after the Gettysburg Transit Company.

According to the rumors the sale of the holdings in the York Co. Traction pave the financial way to all the other proposed accomplishments. We have so much faith in what we have heard that we believe it is safe to predict that in a year or two Gettysburg will be at one end of the York County Traction system.

After purchasing stock the following were elected directors: Capt. Lanius, Geo. S. Billmeier, John W. Staley, Geo. Smyser, T. J. O'Neal and John D. Keith. Hon. D. P. McPherson remains President of the company. The directors elected Ellis P. Lewis Sec. and Treas. and on Monday made Allan B. Plank general manager. Mr. Plank was for several years the highly efficient superintendent of the plant and his appointment as general manager meets with unqualified approval from this community, as the right man in the right place.

Talking about trolleys, Patricio Russ is said to have declared last week that he had not yet abandoned the idea of a trolley from Gettysbug to Mt. Holly. The Superintendent of the Mt. Holly line with an engineer, drove over the route recently and expressed the opinion afterwards that a new route would likely be selected. If Gettysburg was only made permanent site for the N. G. P. Encampment this Mt. Holly trolley would move this way at a more rapid pace.

Why He Does It.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said Druggist L. M. Buehler to one of his many customers, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

"The Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized me to sell the regular fifty cent bottle of their specific for half price, 25 cents, and, although I have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and everyone has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water.

"I am still selling the specific at half-price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the specific does not cure them, they can come right back to my store, and I will cheerfully refund their money.

Addresses.

Miss Lillian Phelps of St. Catherines Canada, will make two addresses in county next Sunday. The Walter Loyal Legion have arranged for Miss Phelps to give an address at Mt. Olivet church, near Centre Mills, next Sunday afternoon, March 25th, at 2 o'clock. She will also speak in the Lutheran church at Arendtsville, the evening of the same day at 7.30 o'clock. Don't miss hearing her.

Miss Phelps held the raft attention of her audience for fully an hour, and delivered a most interesting address. She is the owner of a sweet, strong voice and quite accomplished in the art of oratory.—"Toronto World".

3 Per Cent Interest.

The Citizen' Trust Company of Gettysburg, with a capital of $125,000, and a surplus of $50,000, issues certificates of deposit for any amount, payable at any time on demand. If left sixty days or over 2 per cent interest will be paid. If left for one year 3 per cent interest will be paid. This is a safe and profitable way of making interest on moneys in your hands for a short time. m21-6t

Letter to J. O. Blocher, Estate.

Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sirs: What is lumber worth?

"Depends on the lumber," you say—"what sort do you want?"

That's how some people talk about paint. They ask: "What'll you paint my house for?"

The Yankee answer is: "How do you want it painted? One coat? two coats? three coats? first class or cheap?

The proper answer is: "I want the best paint put on as it ought to be."

That's Devoe: but the usual answer is: "I want a good job: but I want it cheap." Which means, I want you to paint it for nothing. I want to be fooled.

Lead-and-oil is the costliest paint there is: not the best: it used to be the best. Devoe is the best, since zinc came in: Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Zinc toughens the lead and doubles its wear.

Zinc costs no more than lead: and we grind by machinery.

Yours Truly
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

—The big sale of Anthony Deardorff at York Springs has been postponed on account of snow storm from Mar. 15 to Monday March 26. A large lot of farm stock, machinery, utensils, traction engine, etc., will be sold.

BIG FIRE LOSS ADJUSTED

CONTENTS OF WAREHOUSE ADJUSTED AT $52,000.

The Loss is Divided Among Thirty Insurance Companies.

The Insurance adjusters after spending several days in this place, going over the loss of the L. M. Alleman Hardware Company by the big fire on Feb. 28, came to a conclusion last week and the loss so adjusted was accepted by H. N. Gitt, Pres. of the Company.

The adjusted loss on the contents of the warehouse reached a sum slightly short of $52,000 and salvage in ruins. The loss as figured out by the company aggragated about $57,000 Difficulties were met with which resulted in an advantage to the companies. Certain policies were written upon merchandise in west shed, or east shed or brick warehouse and this made it possible for some escape from liability. It was said that the loss would have been settled speedier between the companies if all policies had simply insured goods in warehouse without designating any specific part of premises.

The perfect system of book-keeping had much to do with bringing about a quick adjustment. This system showed the receipt of all goods at the warehouse and when any goods were taken to store there was an order and a record kept, so that from the books it was possible to determine the exact contents of warehouse. The adjusters after verifying the statement of loss with the books kept were entirely satisfied and after settling questions arising between companies made Mr. Gitt the offer to adjust loss at about $52,000 which he accepted.

A story is told that when the adjusters were trying to come to terms with each other two Germans held out and refused to come within about $100 each of the amounts the others figured upon should be contributed by their companies. The spokesman for the adjusters reasoned that their time was too valuable to waste in a dispute over $100 from each and asked both to give in. They refused. He then flashed a piece of money upon them saying, "heads I win, tails you lose," to which they gave assent. It was some minutes before they discovered they were bound to lose, but let the matter go with a laugh.

Thirty companies pay the loss so adjusted. They are, Commercial Union, Continental, N. H. Fire Insurance Co., Fire Association of Phila., Farmers Fire Ins. Co., Insurance Co. of North America, Spring Garden, Williamsburg City, Rochester German, American, Saint Paul, Boston Ins. Co., Ben Franklin, German, Teutonic, Delaware, London, German Pittsburg, Agricultural, Sun Insurance Co., German American, National Union, North British, German Fire, Hartford, Home, N. W. National, German National and Girard.

Metallic Pianos.

People who know real music often say: "I would willingly pay more for a piano that is sure not to become metallic after a few years use, and yet has a clear distinct ringing tone." The Weaver Piano is made for this class of purchasers.

Esmeralda.

The following highly complimentary notice was paid Miss Sarah Spencer's interpretation of Esmeralda, to be reproduced in Brua Chapel on Tuesday evening March 27.

"A most entertaining recital was given in the Assembly Hall of the Normal School on Wednesday evening by Miss Sara A. Spencer of the department of expression. The piece chosen by Miss Spencer for the evenings interpretation was ~~Miss~~ Frances Hodgson Burnett's four-act comedy "Esmeralda" and for naturalness of oration, strength of expression and power of impersonation Miss Spencer's interpretation has not been surpassed. For an hour and a half Miss Spencer held her audience's closest attention as she portrayed the love of Esmeralda and Dave, the machinations of Mrs. Rodgers, the trials of Mr. Rodgers and the human interest of the play, and through the various acts Miss Spencer made the different characters live and move with all the reality of life."

BABY'S TORTURING SKIN HUMOR

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered—Face Mass of Sores—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse—Face and Body Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

GIBSON PICTURE FAD SEIZES COLLECTORS

The Gibson picture habit has been effectually fastened on a big proportion of the reading population of this section by the publication by the Sunday North American of ten of the latest of this great American artist's pictures as art supplements. It has started the Gibson collection fad, and this promises to last until the last of the pictures are out.

There was a time when the Gibson girl was the ideal of the young woman. Now the Gibson art supplements give everybody an opportunity to collect the artist's works, and there will be few homes that will not have a good representation within the next few weeks.

For the time being the collection of Gibson drawings has taken the place of the collection of post cards in Philadelphia, and the fad is certain to spread to all of the towns where the pictures are made so easily obtainable.

In the Blizzard's Grip

[Copyright, 1905, by McClure, Phillips & Co.]

Joe Peters was a bad one, but a thoroughbred. He had seen better days.

Colville was five miles from Fort Yuma. Colonel McClentock used to ignore the town's laws and go for trespassers against his command himself. He had had tilts with Joe Peters and had declared that he would some day get him dead to rights. He thought the day had come when a paymaster was robbed, and the finger of suspicion pointed strongly to the gambler. Over to Colville he went, with half a company at his back, and Peters had just five minutes to prepare himself. He "made good" by walking out to meet the colonel and holding a revolver to his head until he gave the order for the soldiers to turn back. When the colonel had got back to his parade ground he took the biggest kind of an oath that he wouldn't die until he had got even for the humiliation.

When fall came it was known that Joe Peters was out of health. Dissipation and a strenuous life were beginning to tell. He was so financially well fixed that he could have gone in any direction, but he remained right there. He had the cough of a consumptive on him and men had begun to notice that his grip was growing weaker when winter, which had been holding off in a wonderful way, set in with a blizzard. It began blowing and snowing soon after noon one day, and an hour after dark the driver of the up coach rolled off his box at the Black Bear hotel and was carried into the barroom more dead than alive. He reported that he had been compelled to abandon his coach in Panther pass, five miles below. He had cut loose one of the leaders and had been three hours making his way into Colville against the gale and the drifts.

"And the passengers?" some one asked.

"There wasn't but one, and, God help me, I had to leave her in the coach!"

"But what could I do?" whimpered the man.

His ears and nose and fingers and toes had been frostbitten, and had he had half a mile farther to go the cutting winds would have had his life. If he had abandoned the woman he had at least reached some spot from which help could be sent.

"Who is the woman?" asked Peters of the driver.

"She's the colonel's wife. That's what makes it so bad. Nobody can get through to the fort in this storm. Every cut will be blocked five feet deep."

Peters rose up and walked about for a moment and then said to the landlord:

"Have the boy saddle my horse. I also want a couple of blankets and a bottle of brandy."

"What the devil's afoot, Joe?"

"I'm going after the woman."

There were vigorous protests from the score of men in the barroom. They were not a selfish lot, and chivalry was not dead in their breast, but it was one chance in a hundred, and they did not feel like taking it. If a rescuer succeeded in forcing his way through the drifts it would be to find the woman frozen to death. They argued and protested, but Peters quietly went on with his preparations. When they saw that he was determined to go man after man offered his company.

"I'm game to try it alone," replied Peters. "You know I've got a little account to settle with the colonel. Have things ready to thaw us out when we turn up."

"There's a man for you, and we are a lot of curs!" announced an individual as Peters rode away in the storm and darkness, and no man turned to resent his words.

No one has ever told how the gambler's horse battled his way through the drifts until the stage was finally reached. What seemed impossible was at last accomplished. The three stage horses left behind had fallen stiff in their tracks and were hidden under the snow, and the vehicle was simply one of the many snow mounds.

"Is anybody in there?" was shouted by the man on horseback.

"Yes, but I am perishing with the cold."

"Drink half this bottle of brandy and then wrap those blankets around you. Now give me your hand, and get you on the saddle in front of me. No more talk now."

Two hours down to the stalled coach, two hours back to Colville, and the thermometer had gone down twelve degrees in that time. There were men who swore in admiration, and there were others who turned away with tears in their eyes at the sight.

"The woman is all right and will be chipper in a day or two," said the doctor, "but Joe Peters has played his last hand. It's the most cruel thing I ever saw. He can't be disturbed for a day or two, but after that you want to form in line and go softly in and bid him goodby."

Three days later the colonel came down from the fort to find his wife up and about and playing nurse to the man waiting in the shadow. He heard the tale and took one of the limp hands in both of his, and with tears streaming down his cheeks he said:

"I can't begin to tell you how I feel about this."

"Cut it out, colonel," answered Peters, with a weary smile. "Perhaps it's a bit of offset for some of my shady things. Yes; cut it out and send the boys in to shake hands. I'm not much on sentiment, but I'm going a long journey, and I want a good sendoff."

WARD OFF DISEASE

By fortifying your system with a reliable blood medicine. An alcoholic stimulant would do more harm than good and the reaction from it would leave you nearer complete prostration than ever before.

With stomach and blood in good order you can fight the battle of life successfully against all odds. GOLDEN SEAL ROOT Liver-dretics is a famous remedy for dyspepsia, and QUEEN'S ROOT Stillingia, has a direct action in promoting the renewal of the blood. Both of these are used in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in such a way, by skillful extraction, combination and solution without a solvent, that their best effects are secured.

Many years of actual practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for continuous use as tonic and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of the ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle hereafter to be sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an "unknown remedy."

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD

STORY OF THEIR REMOVAL FROM BATTLEFIELD UNTOLD.

Rev. Capt. Minnigh Secures Some New Data Besides That Already Published.

After waiting in anxious expectation hoping to receive a reply to many letters of inquiry sent out in reference to the Confederate dead, we have abandoned the inquiry, and with these few observations drop the subject.

Dr. Weaver in his answer to our letter of inquiry, says: "The Confederate dead disinterred from the field of Gettysburg were sent to the four places of re-interment in the south by way of Baltimore", but we have learned that this is true of only a portion removed, for from reliable authority we have learned that those to the furthest southern cemeteries were shipped by way of Philadelphia.

We long since have concluded that many of the soldiers graves in the Cemetery here, marked as unknown Union soldiers, were Confederate dead but I am asked why do you so decide? My answer is this. When the exhuming of the Union dead from the Battlefield to the National Cemetery was done, all soldiers wearing the army blue, as well as any who wore our Corps badges or buttons were recognized as Union soldiers and accordingly buried as unknown Union soldiers, there being no other designation of rank or command. But many of the Confederates wore our army blue, gathered from many previous fields of conflict, hence they were interred in the Union Cemetery as "unknown dead." We do not complain: may they sleep well, for the resurrection trumpet will make no distinction in that day.

Again: Only a few weeks ago, a trench of the fallen at Culp's Hill was discovered containing thirteen bodies, some Union buttons were found in the same trench and the authorities decided they were Union dead. This trench however was in a locality not approached by the federal forces, but on ground occupied during the Battle by the Confederates, hence the general verdict rendered intimates that they were bodies of Confederate soldiers. They were interred in the plot for unknown Union dead in the National Cemetery. Doubtless many trenches and graves containing the dead of either army, still remain undiscovered. Occasionally they are accidently uncovered and usually reinterred in the Cemetery at this place.

By the way, it was interesting to read of the services connected with the dedication of the monument to the Union dead buried at Andersonville prison. We rejoice at this for some of our comrades sleep there. But we learn that at Elmira N. Y. where was located one of the federal prisons for Confederates, those dying of wounds or disease at that place were interred in an adjoining plot of ground, which plot since the war has been placed under cultivation thus destroying all traces of the graves. We are disposed to doubt this, but the source of information seems reliable.

On this field at Gettysburg, when soon after the Battle was fought, graves were found usually by the owners of the ground, the authorities to whom the work was committed exhumed the dead, the remains being placed in boxes previous to shipment, and with each identified body was placed a sealed jar containing the name, company, regiment and command of each, written on parchment, those marks were attached to the proper body, thus after a lapse of time, the body could be identified and properly disposed of. Here we close our attempt to further cast light on this question of the burial of the confederate dead. May the heroes of the War for the Union sleep well, whether in known or unknown graves in the North or in the South.

Rev. Capt. Minnigh.

A Disgusted Musician.

Conductor Gericke, known as the "human metronome," had been giving a Wagner programme. After the concert one of the trombone players was heard to say to a fellow musician, "Well, I am going to quit." "Are you daffy?" said his friend. "What's the matter?" "Well, it's just this: In that 'Prize song' I had a number I moistened to keep the reeds of my instrument soft, and the dastard, Gilbert my boss, for that magnificent passage for the brass, where my gums that fatal hot hand, so I had to swallow my enthusiasm and wind too. If I don't quit I am either going to burst or die of tuberculosis."

A Funny Misprint.

One of the most ludicrous announcements that ever appeared perhaps was made by a London newspaper in the earlier half of the last century to the effect that Sir Robert Peel "and a party of fiends were shooting peasants in Ireland." The words misprinted, of course, were "friends" and "pheasants."

A Matter of Money.

"Would you marry a woman who had sued another man for breach of promise?"

"Well, it would depend largely on how much the jury had compelled him to pay her."—Chicago Record-Herald.

She Was Ready.

"Yes; Mr. Catchem is coming this evening. I rather think that is my engagement ring."—Baltimore American.

The Preparation.

William O'Brien in his "Recollections" tells this story of Dr. Coke, the archbishop of Cashel: "Once on one of his examinations of the children for confirmation the archbishop put to a little girl the question from the catechism, 'What is the preparation for matrimony?' The little one blushed and giggled and put the corner of her bib in her mouth by way of answer. The question was repeated. 'Oh, sure, your lordship knows it yourself,' was the timid reply. 'Yes, but you must tell me, my child. What is the preparation for matrimony?' 'Well, my lord, a little courting, of course,' at last came the reluctant answer from amid a rosary of blushes."

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

STORY OF VACCINATION

DISCOVERY OF LYMPH THAT HAS SAVED AN ARMY OF LIVES

Paper Prepared by Dr. O'Neal in His 85th Year and Read Before Medical Society.

The following paper was prepared by Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal in his 85th year and read before the last session of the Adams County Medical Society. In it is told the story of the discovery of vaccination. He gives his conclusion of an experience of over 60 years. It is a paper well worth careful consideration, specially where the discussion of the subject grows excited.

The discoverer of vaccination was Edward Jenner, born at Gloucester May 17, 1749, and died in 1823. He was the third son of Rev. Stephen Jenner and a student in the office of Dr. John Hunter, a celebrated English surgeon. Dr. Jenner was an expert anatomist, a sound pathologist and a careful experimenter.

He settled in Berkely, England. His attention was attracted to the nature of cowpox as a preventative of smallpox in the following manner:

Whilst pursuing his professional studies at Sudbery, a country woman came to the office to seek advice, the subject of smallpox being mentioned. She observed that she could not take the disease for she had had the cowpox, a disease she caught from milking cows which had sores on their bags or udders. This was about the year 1770.

In 1775 at Gloucestershire, England, he had an opportunity of examining into the truth of the traditions respecting cowpox. Five years later, 1779, he began to see his way clearly to the discovery that was in store for him. In May 1780, on his road to Gloucester and Bristol with a friend he related the story of natural history of cowpox, stated his opinion as to its origin, referred to the effect or protection of the cowpox as protection against smallpox and with emotion mentioned his hope of being able to propagate that variety from one human being to another till he had disseminated the practice all over the globe to the extinction of smallpox.

Many investigations regarding the different varieties of smallpox delayed the actual discovery for about sixteen years, when the crowning experiments of subjecting vaccinated persons to exposure of smallpox was made in 1796 Jenner's work was accomplished.

The process of vaccination so well known to practitioners of medicine is the introduction of the cowpox lymph or its modified substitute into the structure of the human system through the denuded or wounded true skin or in bringing it in contact with the absorbing surface of the human system through the wounding of the skin by the so-called poisoned lancet. Simple as is the operation I may be excused in giving my own manner of procedure in performing the operation.

The skin on the arm between the shoulder and elbow, or on the leg between the hip joint and the knee should be well washed with water and soap, thoroughly cleansed and disinfected and scraped until the skin is in full blush, a clean lancet charged with the characteristic lymph preferably that from the arm of a healthy infant born from healthy parents.

If the system is in condition to take vaccination the wounded arm will inflame in two or three days, and advance in regular course of inflammatory action for about twelve days, when it will pick up or exhaust the smallpox poison and render the system pure or immune. Two or three days after vaccination the arm or wound inflames, in three or four days a vesicle of bluish white color with an elevated edge and a depressed cup will appear. About the eighth day the cup will be perfect and will be distended and filled with clean lymph. On the ninth day the vesicle is surrounded with an inflamed ring. On the ninth, tenth and eleventh days the vesicle ripens into a postule, the cup disappears, the areola enlarges and becomes a circle having a diameter of from one to three inches. The postule dries from 12 to 14 or 14 days and sheds the scab from 20 to 21 days.

Re-vaccination should be made every five years, and whenever there is a smallpox scare or epidemic. If there is immunity the vaccine wound will not inflame. If the arm or wound inflames then the system was not perfectly protected and the necessity of re-vaccination is evident.

I have the experience of over sixty years and know what I recommend. I have never seen a case of smallpox in a properly vaccinated and re-vaccinated subject, and I do not believe it can occur. As long as the vaccinated would respond to vaccination just so long should re-vaccination be continued and when the smallpox germ still remains in the system as antidote vaccination should be repeated. A properly vaccinated and repeated vaccinated community can not have a case of smallpox.

WINTER IS A SUMMER'S DAY

From a Letter of Mrs. E. J. Dill Spending Winter in Arizona.

We went to Phoenix, Arizona on Christmas day. It seemed like a summer day as I think of it now. The First Territorial Fair was held that week. Fares on the railroads were reduced but hotel rates were doubled. We had a very delightful time, though we spent but one day at the Fair. It was Indian Day, among other racing were three two horse wagons driven by Indians, think of going around a race track in that way. There was a foot race but no squaws took part. There were too brick buildings, one for the mineral exhibit and one for the agricultural, olives and olive oil, bees at work in glass cases and cheese and creamery exhibits. Arizona is called the land of sunshine and it surely has been since we have been here. Some part of every day the sun appears and many days all the day. We could not have found a more delightful climate. We had one snow and once the thermometer got down to 24 degrees above, when was colder than had ever been known here, but we think it spring like, cool mornings and nights, warm when the sun shines. We think we prefer it to California. A fire is necessary most of the time but the stoves are light and we burn a "mosquito" wood, that is a red wood making a white ash, burning up quickly like pine, making a hot fire and holding the fire much like hickory wood. Some of the heavier wood is brought from the northern part of the Territory and some is gathered out in the desert near by by the Mexicans. This is a mining camp and presents a rough exterior, consists of Upper and Lower Congress and Mexican town. No damp, foggy, slushy weather and no mud. When it rains the water rushes down over the rocks and hills and is gone in a day. Some of the farmers down the country farther have made water holes to hold it for the dry season. There is a good water supply pumped in from a spring 15 miles away. The water is very good and pure. We can be out on the porches most of the days. The moonlight nights are superb. They say the summers are very hot especially down by Phoenix but here there is a cool breeze in the shade. The Congress Gold Company have their own railroad and rolling stock to Congress junction three miles away. Phoenix the largest town is 70 miles south. Prescott the same distance north. We take the train at the junction and go to Ash Fork north where there is a Junction with the Santa Fe route. We read the Comet and Compiler.

ACHED IN EVERY BONE.

Chicago Society Woman Who Was So Sick She Could Not Sleep or Eat, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

When a woman's kidneys go wrong, her back gives out and every little task becomes a burden. She is tired, nervous, sleepless, run down—suffers daily from backache, headaches, dizzy spells, and bearing-down pains.

Marion Knight, of 33 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and a well-known club woman, says: "This winter when I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I ached in every bone and had intense pains in the kidneys and pelvic organs. The urine was thick and cloudy, and I could barely eat enough to live. I felt a change for the better within a week. The second week I began eating heartily. I began to improve generally, and before seven weeks had passed I was well. I had spent hundreds of dollars for medicine that did not help me, but $6 worth of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to perfect health."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Miss Knight will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Daughter Accuses her Father.

One John Miller is in the Adams county jail awaiting trial at April court on a very serious charge preferred by his own daughter, as stated in last weeks issue.

Such items are read with horror and dismissed from the mind as being of the disagreeable. In this case it is proposed to look a little further into the matter.

About 20 years ago the city papers contained a description of a family in the neighborhood of Fountaindale, the larger part of whom were imbeciles. Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal was a member of the Board of Public Charities at the time and as the family was said to be located in his own county he decided to investigate. The editor of this paper was attorney for Directors of the Poor. In company with six or seven persons, two or three being members of Board of Public Charities, several of the Poor Directors, the steward and attorney drove to Fountaindale and about a mile southward reached the farm of one Jacob Miller.

Mr. Miller was a tall spare man nearly 6 feet. He owned his farm. His wife had died in 1881 leaving to survive her besides her husband 11 children, eight of whom were feeble minded. The defendant in jail was one of the children and said in an interview that but three of the eleven children were considered of sound mind, a brother, sister and himself.

When the visitors reached house they found the father at home, several of the boys were at work in garden and two young girls doing the household work. The mental condition of some of these children was plainly apparent in their looks, etc. It was told that at times some of them had bad or violent spells

The situation was discussed with Mr. Miller and he was asked whether he would not surrender some of his children to be placed in institutions for feeble minded children at the expense of the county. He seemed to resent the intrusion declaring he was able to care for his children and did not propose to surrender the custody of them to anyone else. He was reasoned with that it would be for the good of the children and society if he allow them to be cared for as proposed, but he refused.

The father died in 1901 and of the eleven children five now survive, two of whom are feeble minded.

After this time the prisioner in jail John Miller married a Miss Harrison. She was a sister of a certain Wm. Henry Harrsion, a young man living near Springs Hotel several years ago, who was periodically deranged. It will be recalled that he created quite a scene in the court house on one occasion and had to be removed. Rosie Miller the prosecutrix in case against her own father was the child of the union of John Miller and Miss Harrison. The mother died some years ago and father remarried. These facts speak for themselves.

Gettysburg Compiler

WM. ARCH. McCLEAN, Editor and Manager

Year - - - - - - $1.50

Gettysburg, Pa., Wednesday, 21 Mar. 1906

MORE CONGRATULATIONS.

We have certainly appreciated the many kind things said about the Centennial number of the COMPILER. Bouquets of congratulations have been thrown at us and they have given us great pleasure. We have realized not only that it was a good thing for the COMPILER to have issued a centennial number, but also that the public mind was a unit on the point that the town deserved it. It was an opportune occasion to exploit and extol the town, its history, its virtue and the substantial up-to-dateness of our community and business men, from which only good can flow.

"Our esteemed neighbor, the COMPILER last week issued a sixteen page edition in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the incorporation of Gettysburg. This centennial number is one of which editor and proprietor Wm. Arch. McClean can well feel proud. The issue contains much interesting data and the illustrations of different buildings of the town are excellent. The issuing of a number of this kind requires considerable extra work and this being the busy season for the local offices, Mr. McClean is entitled to a whole lot of credit. We extend congratulations." —Star and Sentinel.

"One hundred years ago the town of Gettysburg was incorporated into a borough and in honor of the anniversary the Gettysburg Compiler came out last week with a handsomely printed sixteen page edition filled with interesting facts and history of the town illustrated with a number of half tone cuts."—York Springs Comer.

500 Feet of Hose Bought.

The Town Council met in special session on last Wednesday evening to consider the matter of the purchase of hose for the Fire Company. It was said J. A. Campbell, agent for the Fabric Hose Co., of Elmira, from whom the last lot of hose was bought, happened to be in a neighboring town and was told to drop in and meeting was called to see whether to do business with him.

President Gilbert called meeting to order and Mr. Campbell exhibited his samples. A motion prevailed that 500 feet of hose be bought. Then came the question what kind to buy and it was stated that Fire Company wanted same kind they had been using and several Councilmen expressed themselves in favor of the purchase of same kind of hose, a wax and gum treated variety.

A motion was then made to buy 500 feet of the same variety. After some discussion Mr. Hammond moved that the matter be deferred until next meeting, that samples and prices ought to be obtained from other firms. Motion was lost. A motion then carried to order 500 feet of wax and gum treated hose at 80 cents, with two underwriter's play pipes, 3-4 inch tips, 1-2 dozen washers and 2 spanners. Six months was given in which to pay for hose.

The bond of W. H. Garlach was brought up and it was moved that when executed by Treasurer with S. M. Bushman and D. G. Minter as sureties that it be accepted.

The Finance Committee was authorized to borrow $1000 to meet sewer account. Council then adjourned.

If you need furniture this spring why not buy the kind that we sell, goods that you can rely on. There is little difference between the cost of cheap truck furniture and the kind that we sell. Our experience teaches us that low price goods are not always cheap. At this season of the year we make great preparations for the new beginners in housekeeping. We invite you to come and examine the largest stock of furniture ever shown in this section of the country. ELAINE ROZE ON LATEST FADS

A silk season, as the one before us promises to be means a season of rich colorings and chiffon effects, for suppleness continues in favor, and everything stiff or stately is tabooed by the best modistes. Distinction is observable in all the best models, be they gowns for formal occasions or for shopping or walking, and of silk they almost invariably are.

And silk, that Queen of fabrics was the choice of Miss Roosevelt for her trousseau, and some of her handsomest gowns were in the Marie Antoinette style. And as the season advances we see more of Marie Antoinette Silk, which was so successfully launched in New York by the Nothing but Silk shop in Twenty-second street, where nothing but silk, and silk of the best and most fashionable is to be found. Supple to the touch, and exceptionally soft in tone, Marie Antoinette, with its wonderful range of design in self-color brocade, patterned with jacquard interweaving, runs the gamut of most exquisite and fashionable shades, reaches the acme of perfection in the weaver's art, and is proving a fashion, not a fad.

The hats that are appearing are dainty and more becoming than they would seem off the head—many of them seeming almost impossible while on a well coiffured head they are by no means discouraging. Many of them are provided with little pin curls placed just where they are needed to cover the bandeau at the back and sides.

But with the variety of shapes in hats from large high crowned and beplumed to the tiny coquettish hats poised airily aloft, no woman should fail to find a model becoming to her own particular style, and yet what startling effects we see! Let the full faced matron avoid the tiny short fronted hat if she does not wish to look a guy—and a fool sh old one at that!

The fitted bodice for visiting costumes is being adopted by many women of good figures. An important feature of the bodice is the high bust and sleeves with fullness clear to the top. While the half length sleeve has made a bid for popular favor, the three-quarter length is in the lead.

Of double skirt effects we see more and more. They part at the front, and as a rule come within ten or twelve inches of the bottom of the skirt. Are we to have the old fashioned "overskirt" back again with the "fitted bodice" which in reality is the ancient "basque." Time will tell.

Elaine Roze.

If you are troubled with piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. It is the original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

HIGHLAND, ARENDTSVILLE AND IRON SPRINGS NEWS.

Little Highland Still Objects to the New Road Law as to Roadmasters, Etc.

The dedication of the new German Baptist Brethren church in Gettysburg will take place on Sunday, Mar. 25. Speakers from a distance will be present.

Esquire Hammers will enlarge his store the coming spring and run a delivery wagon for the convenience of the people of the township.

Highland township is without a supervisor. Ever since the township has been in existence there has been trouble to get two men every spring to serve as supervisors, but when we got them, in a week or so, by the assistance of the taxpayers, the roads were make. Now see what trouble the new road law has put us to. In the first place we must get three men for supervisors. Those three appoint the fourth man—here we have four men to start with—then these four men have the power to appoint one roadmaster for every five miles. Highland has about 40 miles of road. Now to comply with the strictness of the law we would have to get men to fill just twelve offices, where for 75 years or more two men did the work. A few more such laws passed by our wise law makers would compel little Highland to import a lot of farmers, as we would not have enough voters to fill the public offices. S.S.W.H.

(We regret to differ with Squire Hammers, but the new road law fixes as a minimum "not less than five miles" of road to be under a roadmaster but does not fix a maximum. If the supervisors of Highland can find one man equal to the job of looking after the 40 miles of road in township, it would be strictly legal for the supervisors to appoint one roadmaster for the whole township.— EDITOR.)

Derby, Pierces Bridge, N. H. writes: I have given Downs' Elixir to my children when they have had colds, and like it very much." Downs' Elixir is sold by all dealers in medicines.

A CHICAGO ALDERMAN OWES HIS ELECTION TO CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale at Huber's Drug Store.

G. A. HARMAN is remodeling the York Springs Chapel meeting house which he recently purchased, into a dwelling house.

ONE would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Sold by L. M. Buehler.

CHAMPION LINIMENT FOR RHEUMATISM.

Chas Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale at Huber's Drug Store.

Doctors Are Puzzled.

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends.
